TO PULL THE BLINDS OF HABIT FROM THE EYES,
TO SEE THE WORLD WITHOUT NAMES FOR THE FIRST BRIGHT TIME, TO WANDER THROUGH ITS MYSTERY, TO WONDER
AT EVERY AGE AND STAGE, AT ONE WITH IT —
TO BE ALIVE!

I READ NEW LESSONS IN THE LEAVES.
I BREATHE WITH THE WIND IN THE FLICKERING GRASS.
I TELL MY TIME BY THE TEETERING TORTOISE.
SLOWLY I OPEN MY EARS AND MY EYES.

AND THEN I BEGIN TO MOVE, FASTER AND FASTER, GIVING THE WORLD A WHIRL,
SPINNING INTO TOMORROW . . .

AND, AS I SWING INTO THE SKY
I FEEL I AM FLYING INTO A FUTURE.

ALL I ONCE KNEW
FALLS AWAY UNDER ME.
THERE IS WIND IN MY HEAD.
HOW HIGH ARE CLOUDS?
WILL I EVER COME DOWN?

THE SKY HOLDS ITS BREATH.

EACH DAY IS A BEGINNING.

EACH DAY I AM NEW.

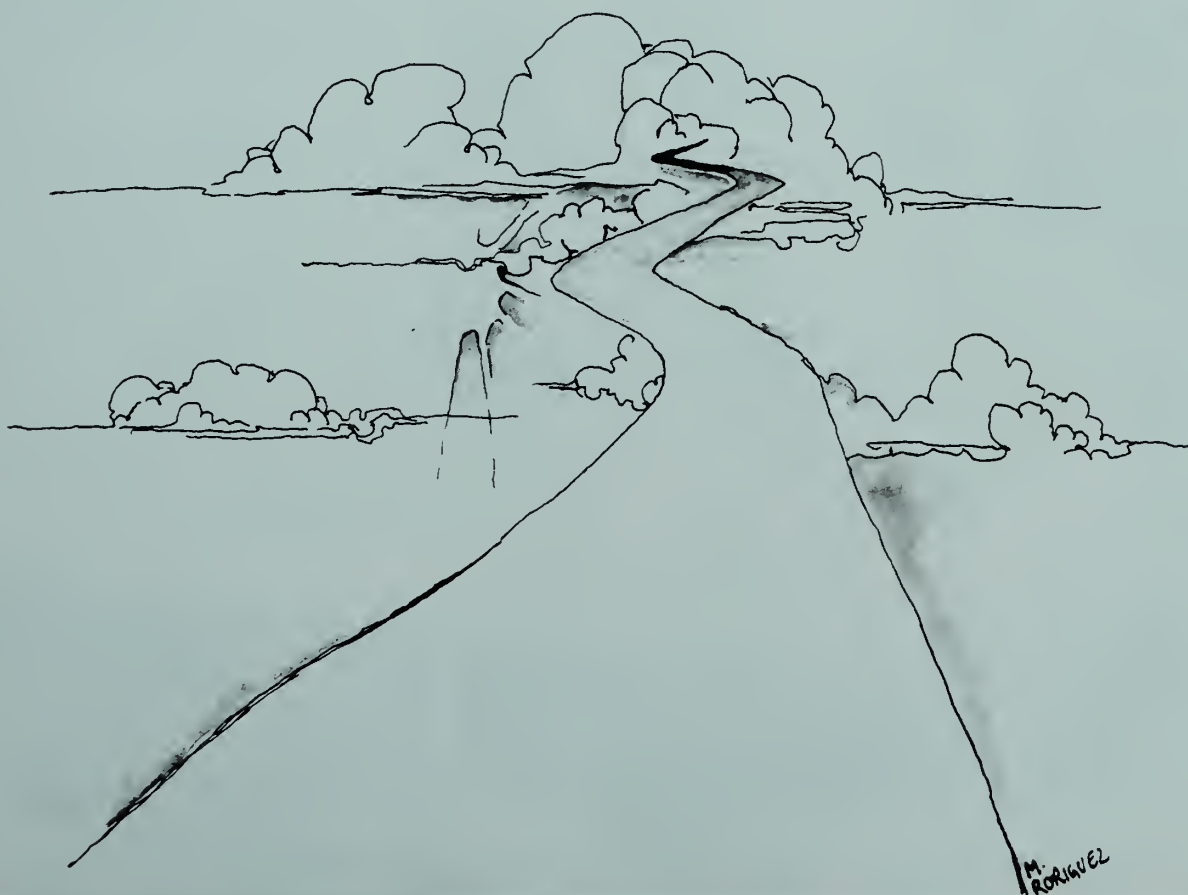

WHEN THE WIND GETS INTO US, WE GO OFF, FLYING, FLYING . . .
WHEELS UNROLLING THE ROADS BEFORE US, WILD WITH SPEED . . .

ON ON ON . . .

WILL WE EVER REACH THAT POINT WHERE THE ROAD TOUCHES THE SKY?

THERE IS NO POINT.
THERE IS ONLY MOVING.
WE LEAVE OUR SELVES BEHIND.
OUR WHEELS UNWIND US.

WHAT WILL WE FIND AT THE END?
OUR SELVES AGAIN, BUT CHANGED.

CRASH! AND, WINDED, WE COME BACK TO EARTH,
FULL OF DUST AND LAUGHTER, WISER THAN WE WERE.

BUT WHEN WE ARE OUT IN THE WORLD,
THERE IS NO TIME TO WONDER,
NO TIME TO BREATHE,
SO MUCH IS HAPPENING.

THE TIME GOES SINGING AWAY . . .

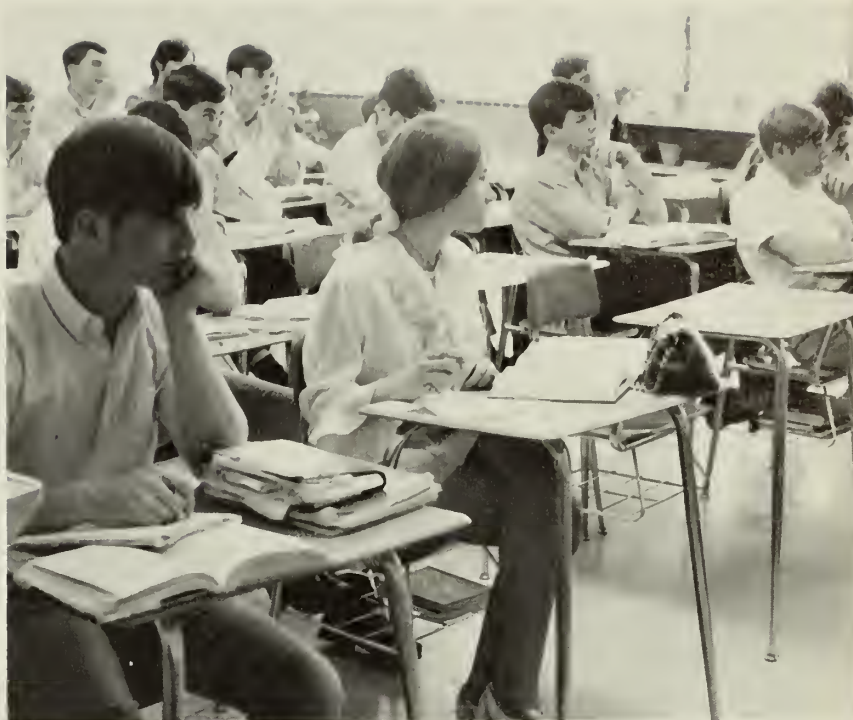

TAKE MY HAND.
TAKE MY HAND.

THERE IS SOMETHING STILL TO UNDERSTAND.

THERE ARE LESSONS TO LEARN
OUR BOOKS NEVER TAUGHT.

THERE ARE THINGS
OUR PARENTS FORGOT.

SO TRY TO UNDERSTAND.

TAKE MY HAND.

THEN SUDDENLY, TWO BY TWO,
WE TURN
A NEW SURPRISING CORNER . . .

IT WAS A NEW KIND OF SEEING, A NEW KIND OF KNOWING.

WE REGRETTED THE END OF EVERY MOMENT.
COULD IT NOT ALWAYS BE LIKE THIS?
DON'T LET IT SLIP AWAY.
GRASP IT, HOLD IT, MAKE IT STAY.

SOMETHING IS ENDING,
SOMETHING IS BEGINNING.

THE VAULTS OF THE PAST TOWER OVER US,
AND, WALKING IN THEIR SHADOW,
IN AWE, WE TURN TO FACE
THE EMPTY SPACE OF THE FUTURE . . .

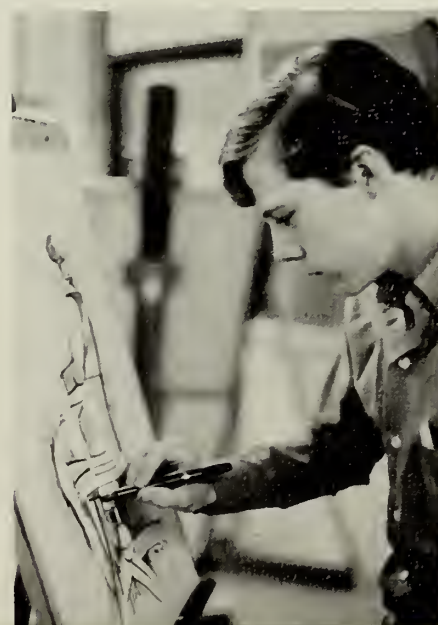

WE HOLD THE PRESENT IN OUR HANDS,
HANDS THAT PUT TOGETHER NEW SHAPES, THAT GATHER THE FRUITS OF THE TURNING SEASONS . . .

HANDS THAT ARE WEAVING
PRIMAL PATTERNS, THAT GIVE TO THINGS
A HUMAN SHAPE . . .

HANDS THAT GROPE
FOR FORMS IN CLAY,
AND GRACE THE FORMS OF EVERYDAY . . .

HANDS THAT PLAY
WITH THE COLOR OF FEELING, IN ROOMS OF THE MIND
ON A SILENT CANVAS.

AND ONCE IN A WHILE, WE TAKE A DAY OUT OF TIME, TO MEET, TO CELEBRATE THE WORLD WHICH MADE US AND WHICH WE ARE MAKING . . .

HELPING EACH OTHER TO FIND OUR FEET.

TAKE MY HAND.
TAKE MY HAND.

WHAT IS THIS?

IT IS CALLED MILKWEED, BOY.

LET IT FLY.

LOOK, IT GOES UP AND UP. IS IT ALIVE?

YES, IN ITS WAY.

CAN YOU STILL SEE IT?

IT'S HIGHER THAN THE BIRDS.

I'VE LOST IT NOW. I WISH I COULD FLY.

YOU WILL, BOY, IN YOUR WAY.

TELL ME ABOUT FLYING.

TELL ME ABOUT WATER. TELL ME ABOUT EVERYTHING.

TELL ME WHAT IT IS, TO BE ALIVE.

DEDICATION

Respect is a word associated with Henry A. Schlickman. Like him or not, (and most do) all who know the man respect him—respect him for his gruff, firm, but guiding ways, his intelligence, and his way of expressing himself. His ideas are definite food for thought to be “thoroughly chewed, then completely swallowed in order to be knowledgeably digested.”

With Mr. Schlickman at the helm, the senior play attains new and greater heights each year.

When handed the Marshal Force for the first time, Mr. Schlickman turned it into a more effective and more respected organization than ever before.

His contribution to the Student Faculty Forum has generated a more vital exchange of ideas between the students and the faculty at North High.

In his senior English classes Mr. Schlickman hands much of the responsibility to the student—something which many students never face until college. He shows faith in a high school level student.

It is for this command of respect, guidance, and faith that we, the class of 1970, dedicate our yearbook to Mr. Henry A. Schlickman.

To the Members of the Class of 1970:

The Class of 1970 is not only the largest class in our history but one which has been involved in many more far-reaching problems than any previous class. It has been very active in school affairs of all kinds. In this day of social change this class has become involved in the Faculty-Student Forum, in interchange of ideas with the faculty and others, and has used its abilities to make for a better Framingham North High School.

It has been my privilege to know and to work with many of you and to make many lasting friendships.

The goals which you have set can only be accomplished by a continuation of the spirit and effort which have been so evident during your four years at North.

May each and every one of the Class of 1970 be successful and find happiness in the world ahead.

Francis J. Savanough

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

HERE WE STAND IN THE MIDST OF MATERIALIZING GOALS. THOSE "KIDS" DREAMS, NO LONGER INTANGIBLE, ARE FINDING FORM AND STRENGTH. HIGH SCHOOL IS SUDDENLY A MEMORY, AS YOUTH SHALL SOON BE. BUT WE STAND NOW, A PARTING CLASS, IN FINAL UNION, NO REGRETS, FOR WE WALK PROUD WITH THAT WHICH WE HAVE ACCOMPLISHED THESE PAST FEW YEARS. WE KNOW THAT IT IS WE WHO WILL SOON PART WITH HIGH SCHOOL TO FORM NEW PATTERNS OF LIFE. WE KNOW THAT IT IS WE WHO MAYBE SEEING SOME OF OUR OLD FRIENDS FOR A FINAL TIME. WE KNOW THAT IT IS WE WHO, AGAIN TOGETHER, IN A CLASS FAR LARGER THAN THAT WHICH WE ARE LEAVING, SHALL MOLD THE BRAVE NEW WORLD.

THERE ARE A FEW PLEASURES WHICH WILL EVER SURPASS THOSE WHICH I RECEIVED THIS YEAR. I'VE MADE MANY FRIENDS WHO HAVE SET ME TO WONDER WHAT LIFE WOULD BE WITHOUT THEM. I ONLY HOPE THAT YOUR MEMORIES ARE AS FOND AS MINE.

A SPECIAL TRIBUTE TO FRANCIS J. CAVANAGH

Sketch by: Jan Zwerling

When a leader decides to retire, one always finds difficulty in enumerating the endless positive qualities of that leader. Such is the difficulty which confronts your editors. A mere listing of professional-educational attributes would not do justice to our principal, Mr. Francis J. Cavanagh. Everyone knows of Mr. Cavanagh's long years of service, his rise through the teacher-administrator ranks, and of his genuine concern for the students of the Framingham public schools. A matter of public record can never truly indicate a man's worth to those whom he influences. Therefore, let's disregard formal accolades and concentrate on the man, Francis J. Cavanagh.

Mr. Cavanagh never attempted to aggrandize himself at the expense of others. He is a true gentleman whose deep, personal concern for North High, North's students, and his colleagues at North is paramount to him. To be brief, no man has dedicated himself so conscientiously and wholeheartedly to our school. His innermost feelings were always student oriented. Never did he make a decision that could be interpreted in any way except that his genuine concern and understanding of a situation resulted in that decision.

Although many administrative decisions are felt individually, all can be assured the many difficult decisions handed down by Mr. Cavanagh were for the benefit of all. These administrative details were never resolved in an "ivory tower" manner. It is precisely this approach that displayed Mr. Cavanagh's penchant for administration.

We need not justify, nullify, nor endorse all school matters. We need only look at the time, effort, and wisdom rooted in North High matters to discover the true personality of our principal, Mr. Francis J. Cavanagh. This leadership has created a legacy which has instilled a true North High Spartan attitude for our school, our leaders, and all who have attempted to shape our destiny.

A most positive influence in these matters was Mr. Francis J. Cavanagh. Therefore, we the class of 1970 offer our heartfelt thanks and appreciation to Mr. Cavanagh. Please accept this special tribute as a testimonial to a true educator, a loyal friend, and a great leader of North High.

The Student-Faculty forum is open for participation by any North High student, teacher, or administrator. The Forum affords students an opportunity to assume a serious role in making school policy. Even more importantly, students, teachers, and administrators meet on equal terms within the Forum, where they frankly express their views and try to resolve problems of mutual concern.

In the first steps toward accomplishing its goals the Forum initiated the placement of students on previously all-faculty departmental curriculum committees. The Forum is also planning to hold one or more seminar days in which regular classes would not be held. In addition, the Forum has begun discussions concerning an independent study program and changes in the grading system of the high school.

Newman, F. Antonucci.

The Key Club's program for the year 1969-1970 may be summed up in the theme, "understanding, a pathway to human dignity." The Key Club carries out service in the following manner: extensive participation in school activities, a more constructive and meaningful cooperation between Kiwanis and Key Clubs, and an active "buddy system" which helps underprivileged children and our elderly generation. In addition to fulfilling theme projects for this year, they are engaged in all sorts of school and community service. The Key Club never refuses a job and expects nothing in return for its services. This is the meaning of Key Club at Framingham North High School.

AMERICAN FIELD SERVICE

A different language, exotic foods and aromas, laughing and crying, folk songs of a foreign history, a noisy marketplace, society's rich and poor, superstitions, religious ceremonies, unfamiliar family customs, an understanding smile.

This is American Field Service. But beneath these features are the emotions and knowledge which also comprise the A.F.S. experience. New sights, people, and culture are only a few of the many facets. The profound value lies in the intangible aspects: understanding, insight, willingness, responsibility, patience, pride and love.

American Field Service teaches that the world isn't small, but a vast union of individual societies. It broadens views and teaches to accept and understand others. This is the beauty of American Field Service.

JAN AT NORTH

To go on the AFS program is to start a new life; to open your eyes and see a new world, although it is very alike your home world, to meet so many people from all over the world, to make so many new friends, to learn about a new sort of people, but also to see that all people are all the same, to really see what your own country is like, to live in another family, to graduate in a great school with great people.

I want to thank everybody, especially my American family, who made this an unforgettable year. Now I really know why the AFS statement says:

"Walk together
Talk together
O ye people on earth
Then and only then
Shall we have peace."

The idea of a Teen Center: a place where teens could congregate socially and work for the community was developed in Framingham in 1967. Bake sales, car washes, and fashion shows were organized to raise money for a building. In June, 1968 the Park Department gave the bleachers on A Street for a Center. After renovation work requiring over 1000 man-hours from teens and adults and over $3,000 worth of materials the Teen Center opened in March, 1969. The Teen Center is run completely by teens for teens. Chaperones are present during operating hours and a 9-member adult board of advisors consults with the Board of Directors. The teens run the kitchen, treasury, clean-up, marshalling, maintenance, and public relations. Teen Center members have helped raise money for the Kiddie Camp, UNICEF, and the Hunger Hike; donated baskets of food and tur-

THE JURY ROOM

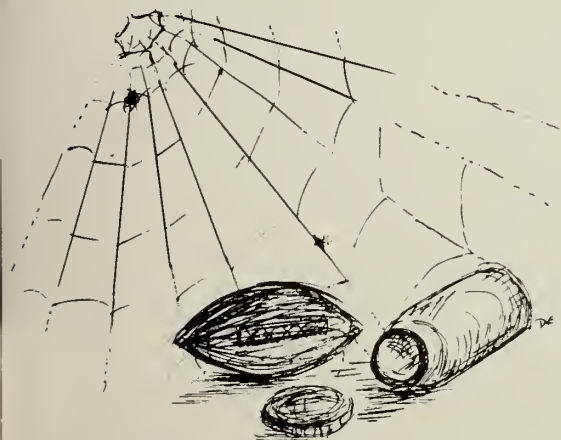

YESTERDAY A CHILD CAME OUT TO WONDER
AND CAUGHT A DRAGON FLY INSIDE A JAR
AND FEARFUL WHEN THE SKIES WERE FULL OF THUNDER
AND TEARFUL AT THE FALLING OF A STAR

AND THEN THE CHILD MOVED TEN TIMES
ROUND THE SEASONS
AND SKATED OVER TEN CLEAR FROZEN STREAMS
AND WORDS LIKE "WHEN YOU'RE OLDER"
MUST APPEASE HIM
AND PROMISES OF SOMEDAY MAKE HIS DREAM
AND SIXTEEN SPRINGS AND SIXTEEN SUMMERS GONE NOW
AND CARTWHEELS TURN TO CARWHEELS THROUGH THE TOWN

THEY TELL HIM 'TAKE YOUR TIME, IT WON'T BE LONG NOW
UNTIL YOU DRAG YOUR FEET TO SLOW THE CIRCLES DOWN''

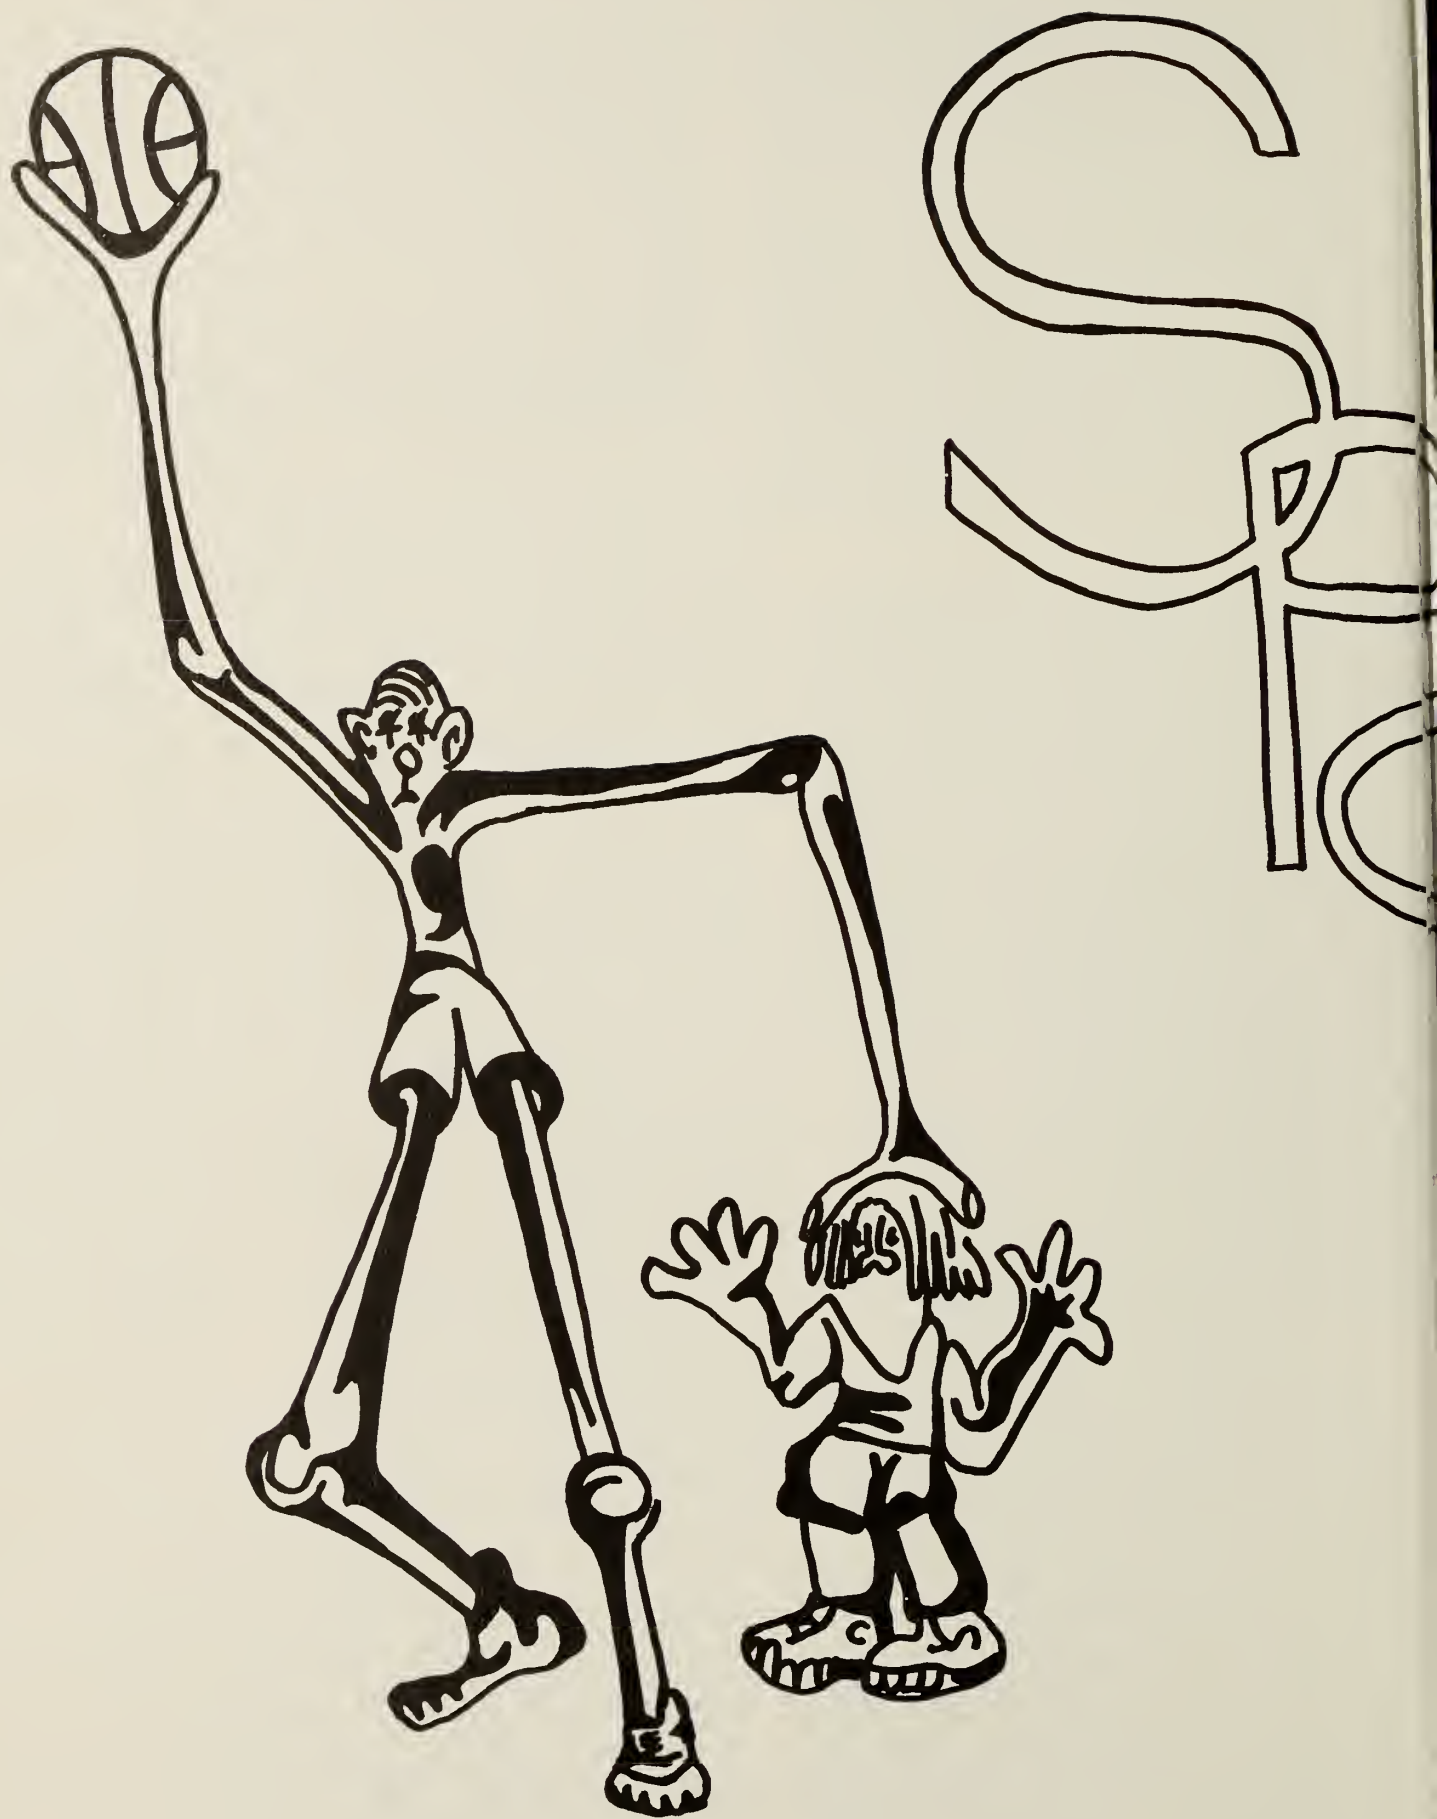

AND SO THE CHILD WHO DREAMED TOMORROW
NOW IS TWENTY
THOSE DREAMS HAVE LOST SOME GRANDEUR
COMING TRUE
THERE'LL BE NEW DREAMS, AND MAYBE BETTER
DREAMS AND PLENTY
BEFORE THE LAST REVOLVING YEAR IS THROUGH

AND THE SEASONS THEY GO ROUND AND ROUND
PAINTED PONIES GO UP AND DOWN
WE'RE KEPT UPON THE CAROUSEL OF TIME
WE CAN'T RETURN, WE CAN ONLY LOOK
BEHIND FROM WHERE WE CAME
AND GO ROUND AND ROUND
IN THE CIRCLE GAME

AND GO ROUND AND ROUND
IN THE CIRCLE GAME

1969: Best Grid Season Ever

"I have never been prouder of these guys than I am today." These were the words of head coach Angelo Insalaco on the eve of the 1969 Thanksgiving game. The next day his team swamped previously undefeated Walpole 32-14 to cap their best season ever, compiling a 7-2-0 record. Never before has a Spartan team provided a more thrilling and successful season.

Spartan Harriers Are BSL's Best

The first male athletic championship was bestowed on Framingham North last fall by the cross country team. Under the expert guidance of Coach Leonard Conlin, the squad outclassed BSL opponents in meet after meet to compile a spotless 9-0 record and secure a well deserved crown.

The hustling, aggressive, Spartan hoopsters were the victims of several final minute defeats. The starting "5" contained some of the best material in the league. Steve Corrigan was the league scoring king, breaking 400 points. Jay Graham and Tom Noonan provided rebounding strength in addition to their scoring. Ted Barnes, Buzzy Ernst, Pete McMahon, and Tom Maley were other outstanding seniors.

Under the reins of new coach George Duane, the hockey squad began to rebuild. The team was building for the future, but fighting every game to the end. The saddest thing about the team's record is it fails to show the ever present battling spirit that never left them. This may just be the beginning, but it was a better beginning than anyone expected, and may lead to some surprising results in the eyes of the BSL.

North's embryonic icemen bolstered by individual effort and tremendous team drive forebode only worry for future BSL opponents. Not only was the Junior Varsity impressive in several outings but also the Frosh skated to a four win, one tie, four loss record. Both clubs boast such luminous stickmen as Gordie Robertson, Chuck Berhmann, Bob Nelson, Bob Henderson, and stellar net-minder George Travis. This galaxy of future stars strongly suggests an upswing in Spartan hockey fortunes.

A hand-drawn sketch of a building facade. The building is represented by simple lines for the roof and walls. A large sign is mounted on the wall, reading "FACULTY AND ADMINISTRATION" in a stylized, outlined font. The word "FACULTY" is on the top line, "AND" is in the middle, and "ADMINISTRATION" is on the bottom line. The letters are tall and narrow, with some internal shading lines. To the left of the building, there are some diagonal lines and hatching, possibly representing a fence or ground. In the bottom left corner, the initials "M.D.N." are written in a small, simple font.

Senior Thesis

I. Thoughts about the hereafter

(or "What's off after graduation?")
 Actually, graduation isn't the end, you know. It's just the beginning.
 And it could be the beginning of one of the most challenging and fulfilling experiences of your life. At New England Telephone, you'll be sharing your commitment with a whole large culture of people who are excited. We need people at New England Telephone all kinds. People who are intensely interested in the future.
 And who are looking for more than their job. They want work.
 Your training, your ingenuity, your ideas, your energy, your modernized experience. Your education, your talent, your your ideas. And your potential for growth.

II. See your Guidance Counselor

He'll tell you where and where you can apply for more training to find out what the hereafter is like.

Congratulations to the Class of 1970

We know the sigh of relief that comes at the end of your final exam. Long years of study behind you, and a big wide world ahead.

But even at that it isn't the final test—or the end of your learning. The biggest tests still face you in the choice and fulfillment of your life's work.

Many plan for college, some must reckon with the armed forces. Others will seek positions in industry, trade, business. We, at Dennison, congratulate you on your past accomplishments; if your future plans call for steady employment or summer work, we'll be glad to discuss your problems with you.

Our Employment Department will welcome the chance to outline opportunities existing in our offices, factory, and warehouse.

SOMETHING IS ENDING

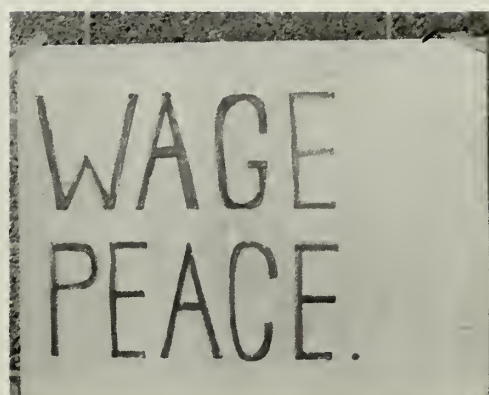

dreams

i'd like to play marbles and be a kid again
instead of being in an awkward stage of life i'd go back to my days of simplicity where each day was a small challenge like marbles i'd like to.

mona diamond

SOMETHING IS BEGINNING . . .

a lasting leaf forever mending the long incipience within forever shall there be no ending while powered is man to begin—tomorrow lies within the hours

TO BE ALIVE
SPINNING INTO TOMORROW
ON ON ON
WHAT WILL WE FIND AT THE END
